

General Social and Economic Characteristics

The following sections describe the general social and economic characteristics of the community. These characteristics are based on information from the 1990 Census of Population and Housing.

Population: The community has a population of approximately 10,000 people. The population is primarily composed of white, middle-class individuals. There is a significant minority population of African Americans and Hispanics. The population is relatively young, with a median age of about 35 years.

Demographics: The community is located in a rural area with a low density of population. The majority of the population lives in single-family homes, with a smaller percentage living in apartment complexes or mobile homes. The community has a mix of urban and rural areas, with some industrial and agricultural activity.

Economy: The economy of the community is diverse, with a mix of agriculture, manufacturing, and service industries. The major employers in the area include a local factory, a regional hospital, and several small businesses. The community also has a strong agricultural sector, with many farms and ranches in the surrounding area.

Education: The community has a high school and several elementary schools. The high school offers a variety of academic and vocational programs. The elementary schools provide a strong foundation for education, with a focus on reading, writing, and mathematics.

Healthcare: The community has a regional hospital that provides medical services to the area. There are also several clinics and medical offices located throughout the community. The hospital offers a range of services, including emergency care, surgery, and rehabilitation.

Transportation: The community has a well-developed transportation system, with a network of roads and highways. There is also a local bus system that provides transportation for residents. The community is located near several major interstate highways, making it easy to travel to other parts of the state.

Community Services: The community has a variety of community services available, including a library, a post office, and a police department. The library offers a wide range of resources, including books, movies, and computers. The post office provides mailing and delivery services. The police department is responsible for maintaining law and order in the community.

Environment: The community is located in a rural area with a natural environment. There are several parks and recreational areas available for residents to enjoy. The community is also located near several rivers and lakes, providing opportunities for fishing and boating.

APPENDIX

Table C-1.—NUMBER OF PERSONS AND HOUSEHOLDS IN SAMPLE, FOR THE STATE, BY SIZE OF PLACE: 1960

[The term "in sample" includes only those cases which were readable by the computer after the various processing steps and after the replication of households. Some households were canceled, and others were replicated to replace them. Cancellations were made because of bias in average size of sample households or lack of sample information. Canceled persons are counted, but replicated persons are counted only once for this statistic]

Table C-2.—PERCENT OF NONRESPONSE AND ALLOCATION FOR SELECTED CHARACTERISTICS, FOR THE STATE, BY SIZE OF PLACE: 1960

[Data are based on final weighted sample figures after all replications. The term "nonresponse" denotes the absence of an entry on the schedule, or an entry that was poorly marked or was otherwise not readable by the mechanical equipment, or an entry that was inconsistent with another entry. The term "allocated" means that a characteristic was assigned during tabulation because of nonresponse. See text for further explanation. Percent not shown where less than 0.1 or where base is less than 200.]
